

K-LOVE has a large impact on my local community, due to it's positive message from both the music played and the messages it broadcasts. Without K-LOVE my children would have very limited options to listing to great music with a wonderful message.